

Launch of IAS / IPS / GPSC Training Center at DJMIT Engineering College Mogar

By Connect Gujarat Desk | September 27, 2020 | 0

Charotar youth dream comes to true of becoming an IAS /IPS officers at Anand

Training Centre of AIGATE (AIS & GPSC Aptitude Training and Exam) was e Launched at Dr. Jivraj Mehta Institute of Technology, Mogar at Anand by Charuttar Education and Navrachana Trust, Anand . The canter will support , guide and train the civil services aspirants mainly from central Gujarat districts of Anand, Nadiad and Vadodara to appear and succeed for important government services to IAS / IPS / GPSC linked services in Gujarat through competitive examinations of UPSC and GPSC. The AIGATE canter will be provided with adequate training & learning infrastructure and faculties from All India and State services with wide and versatile experience of public administration

The mentor and Director of this AIGATE training centre and former IAS officer Mr. M.B. Parmar shared information about the facilities and schemes available at this Training Centre. He wished that the aspiring candidates from Anand-Kheda and Vadodara districts would get a good opportunity to build a career in public services and administration at this centre.

Dr. D.H. Brahmbhatt also former IAS officer of Govt of Gujarat who presided over the event launch said that IAS / IPS and other services officers with varied experience in public administration would be requested and invited to provide guidance to the newly started AIGATE Centre by actively associating with the organization.

Giving information about the important scheme for the candidates undergoing training in AIGATE Centre, the Chairman of the Institute said that under Shri HM Patel Award, Rs. One lakh will be given to the candidates selected in IAS and IPS, while Rs 50,000/ will be awarded to those selected for central services like Income Tax, Customs etc. The candidates selected in the Deputy Collector cadre in GPSC, a cash prize of 25,000/ will be given by the centre as incentive to the candidates. .

Under other scholarship scheme of the institute, Shri Bhailalbai Patel Scholarship for Civil Services Examinations (BPSC) Scholarship will be given by AIGATE Centre 25% of fees will be given s scholarship in general and OBC category asper income criterion of GoG and to all SC / ST candidates. while Scholarship of 50% of the fee will be given to the students studying in the final year in DJMIT and 25% of the fee will be given to the passed out students of DJMIT College.

Other trustees present at the event, Anand Bhai Joshi, Sanjaybhai, Executive Director KM Solanki wished the Centre for its success. The AIGATE training Centre will solicit online applications from the candidates seeking admission from the day of Gandhi Jayanti on 2/10/2020. Candidates primarily from Anand, Kheda and Vadodara districts or otherwise from anywhere in Gujarat desirous to take admission in this canter are requested to contact centre office at campus.

For more information, the candidates can visit the website of DJMIT College of Engineering www.djmit.ac.in or contact the office of AIGATE Training Centre at the institute between 10 am and 9 am.